

Market Tavern 1852 - 1873

Market Street, between Clarendon and Cecil Streets, South Melbourne

The Market Tavern was one of four hotels built on allotments purchased in the first land sales in Emerald Hill in 1852. Architects Wylie and Biers oversaw the excavation and building of a cellar in 1854. This hotel was closed by 1873.