

Celebrate St Kilda Library's 35th Birthday

SKHS and St Kilda Branch Library with assistance from City of Port Phillip invite everyone along to

Open House in St Kilda Library from 4.30pm Thursday 15 May 2008

An opportunity to mix and mingle. Mini-tour. Displays. Games Demo. Discover library hotspot.
Name your favourite zine, book or dvd. Maybe reveal your most memorable library encounter.

Main SKHS Events:-

Guest Speaker: Robert Sands, Architect

He recalls his time as assistant to Dr Enrico Taglietti — the Brutalist architect who designed St Kilda Library.
Also, view copies of some of Taglietti's original plans in SKHS Collection.

SKHS unveils City of St Kilda crest

Thanks to St Kilda Library and City of Port Phillip our historic municipal crest will be on public display in the library.

[off the shelves

Jim Howard recites/reads works
by famous Australian Poets
(special requests with RSVP please)

« bedtime story

bring the kids along to listen to a story read by Linda & Co
(special requests with RSVP please)

Entry is free. Refreshments provided.

[SKHS Members: if possible please wear St Kilda F. C. colours or SKHS t-shirts]

RSVP appreciated by Monday 12 May for catering purposes

Ph. Pearl: 9531 6832, Dorothy: 9537 1967, Fran: b/hrs 9593 6513

E: info@skhs.org.au

swing along to St Kilda Library for a free jam session with Mark Whitty one of Australia's veteran jazz musicians, and help launch his book & cd

'Fine Tunes': a tribute to Australia's Jazz pioneers

by Mark Whitty aka Dr Jazz & Sons

published by PMI Press, Prahran Mechanics' Institute, Melbourne.

St Kilda Library

from 6.30pm, Thursday 12 June

Then there are the characters, mainly musicians of all types, ranging from the great to near-great and the utterly obscure...

Mark Whitty and his amazing band of knock-about minstrels represent the last hurrah of what has been a remarkable chapter in the story of the Australian entertainment industry.

Source: Whitty, M., FineTunes, Foreword by Patience, Bruce J., PMI Press, Melbourne, 2007.

Event hosted by St Kilda Library and St Kilda Historical Society

with assistance from City of Port Phillip

Refreshments provided: RSVP by Tuesday 10 June appreciated.

Phone: Pearl 9531 6832 or Dorothy 9537 1967. E: info@skhs.org.au